TEB OFFERS EXCLUSIVE SERVICES TO FIRMS WITH ITALIAN CAPITAL

BNL, one of Italy's leading financial groups, will serve Italian firms who are active or are planning to be active in Turkish markets through the Italian Desk established in Turkey in partnership with TEB.

Türk Ekonomi Bank (TEB) and one of Italy's leading financial groups, BNL have established an Italian Desk within TEB to serve Italian firms who are active or are planning to be active in Turkish market. The Italian Desk will be managed by a manager from Italy and will serve exclusively to Italian firms in Turkey.

BNL, a member of one of the most innovative and largest finance groups of the world, BNP Paribas Group, manages a financial web that consists of 90 distribution points. BNL has an important position in personal and corporate markets, and also in international trade.

With the Italian desk that is to be established within TEB, investors will be able to access a platform in which they can compare local and national financial products and services, and financial and investment solutions.
