 For Joint Marifetli accounts: For the calculation of additional interest, the total expenses of all joint account owners are to be taken into account. Since the additional interest is to be accrued to the joint account, the other account owner might also see the relevant amount even if the details of the expense are not stated.

"Before collection of fees for spontaneous transactions or services such as non-recurring money transfers, bill collections, lost/stolen and replacement etc.; the transaction is executed after obtaining your consent by displaying the applicable fee details to you from the relevant channel. Since the information on applicable fees and charges is provided to you explicitly before the collection of fees, the aforementioned notification obligations do not apply. You can find information on the fees and charges related to such transactions at www.teb.com.tr".

Interest Rate and Increases: Any increase in the interest rates shall be notified by the Bank to the Credit Card Holder via thirty (30) days' prior notice and if the Credit Card Holder pays the outstanding debt in full and ceases the usage of the credit card within sixty (60) days following the date of notification of the increased interest rates at the latest, the Credit Card Holder shall not be affected by such increased interest rates.

Fees and Increases: The fees, charges and commissions specified in this form shall be increased within a calendar year at the increase rate of the annual consumer price index announced by the Turkish Statistics Institution by the end of the previous year. Such increases in fees shall be notified to you in writing or via the permanent data storage device or the recorded telephone number at least 30 (thirty) days before the effective date of such increases. You have the right to waive from the usage of the product or service within 15 (fifteen) days following the date of such notification. If you use such right, no additional fees shall be collected from the effective date of such increase in fees. If you do not exercise your right of withdrawal until the end of this period, the increase in fees shall be applied.

If you exercise your right of withdrawal, our Bank is entitled to suspend the product or service in dispute. Before collection of non-recurring fees, your consent shall be obtained at the time of transaction according to the structure of the channel through which the transaction is executed.

Collection Method: Fees, charges and commissions are collected in cash or on account or by debiting the credit card account or through collection from the limit of the overdraft account according to the product and service type and depending on the customer's request. I/we have read the form of charges, commissions and fees list provided above constituting an annex to and an integral part of the Bank Debit and Credit Card/Retail Service Agreement; and we/I have received a copy of the Form by hand.
